1. About FarmPlex

FarmPlex Private Limited ("FarmPlex", "we", "us" or "our") operates www.farmplex.in (the "Website"). These Terms & Conditions govern access to and use of the Website, including its pages, content, forms, project information, farm configurations, products, services and related digital features. By accessing or using the Website, you agree to these Terms.

2. Website Information

FarmPlex makes reasonable efforts to ensure Website information is useful and accurate. Agricultural project information may change due to land and site conditions, weather, crop performance, agricultural practices, market conditions, infrastructure availability, approvals, construction schedules, supplier availability and operational considerations. Website information may therefore be updated, modified or withdrawn without notice.

3. Project Information and Illustrations

Images, renders, maps, layouts, photographs, videos, graphics and project representations may be illustrative, conceptual or promotional. Actual project conditions, dimensions, infrastructure, landscaping, crops, structures, amenities and other features may differ. Customers should rely on the final written proposal, agreement, approved project documentation and applicable transaction documents rather than Website illustrations.

4. No Automatic Purchase or Ownership

Submitting an enquiry, registering interest, requesting a quotation, selecting a farm configuration or communicating through the Website does not by itself create a purchase agreement, land ownership right, lease, plot reservation, investment contract, guarantee of agricultural production, or entitlement to profits or returns. Any purchase, ownership, lease, development, management, cultivation or other commercial relationship will arise only through the applicable written agreement or officially approved FarmPlex process.

5. Pricing

Prices displayed on the Website may be indicative unless expressly stated otherwise. Prices may change due to land, infrastructure, materials, crop selection, farm size, location, taxes, statutory charges, approvals, logistics, customization and other project-specific factors. Unless specifically stated in writing, Website prices are not binding quotations. Final pricing and commercial terms will be stated in the applicable quotation, proposal, booking document or agreement.

6. Agricultural Production and Returns

Agriculture involves inherent biological, climatic, operational and market risks. Production estimates, revenue figures, return estimates, crop yields, appreciation figures or other financial information displayed on the Website are illustrative or indicative unless expressly stated otherwise in a legally binding agreement. Actual results may vary due to weather, temperature, rainfall, pests, diseases, crop health, variety performance, labour, input costs, market prices, demand, crop losses, supply-chain conditions, government policies and natural events. FarmPlex does not guarantee a specific yield, income, profit, return or appreciation unless expressly provided under a separate written agreement.

7. No Investment Advice

Information regarding agricultural projects, potential returns, project economics, market opportunities or business models is provided for general informational purposes. Nothing on the Website should be interpreted as financial, investment, tax or legal advice, a guarantee of profit, a guarantee of capital appreciation, or a solicitation to purchase securities or financial products. Users should independently evaluate risks and obtain professional advice where appropriate.

8. Enquiries and Communication

When you submit an enquiry through the Website, you authorize FarmPlex and its authorized representatives to contact you regarding your enquiry and relevant FarmPlex offerings, subject to applicable law and our Privacy Policy. Communication may occur by phone, email, WhatsApp, SMS or other electronic channels. You may request that promotional communications be stopped.

9. User Responsibilities

When using the Website, you agree to provide accurate information; not impersonate another person; not submit false or misleading information; not use the Website for unlawful purposes; not attempt unauthorized access; not introduce malware or harmful code; not interfere with Website operation or security; not scrape or systematically extract content without permission; and not use FarmPlex content for fraudulent or misleading purposes.

You may view the Website for personal and legitimate business evaluation purposes, but may not reproduce, modify, distribute, publish, sell, commercially exploit or create derivative works from FarmPlex content without prior written permission.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability that cannot legally be excluded or limited. Where a separate written agreement exists, its applicable liability provisions shall govern the relevant transaction.

14. Indemnification

To the extent permitted by applicable law, you agree to indemnify and hold harmless FarmPlex, its directors, employees, representatives, contractors and authorized service providers from claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses arising from your unlawful use of the Website, violation of these Terms, misuse of Website content, false or misleading information, violation of third-party rights or unauthorized activities involving the Website.
